

Contents

Chapter - 1

Introduction of Customer Services

Understanding Customer Service	4
Services Defined	6
Characteristics of Services	7
Intangibility	8
Heterogeneity	10
Inseparability	12
Perishability	13
Simultaneous production and consumption	15
Customer's Participation	16
Importance of Customer Services for Retailers	18
Factors Influencing the Growth of the Retail Sector	19
Demographic Changes	20
Economic Changes	21
Technological Changes	22
Political and Legal Changes	22
Policy Changes	22
Classification of Services	23
Classification based on Degree of Involvement of the Customer	23
Classification based on the Service Tangibility	25
Classification based on Skills and Expertise Required	26
Classification based on the Business Orientation of Service Provider	27
Classification based on the Type of End-User	27
Understanding Customer Service for Retailers	27
Customer Service as an Ingredient of the Retail Stratagem	30
Approaches for Customer Service	32

Developing Framework for Analyzing Services	35
What is the Type of Service?	36
What is the Nature of Relationship shared by the Customer with the Retailer?	36
How is the Service Delivered?	37
What is the Type of Demand and Supply for the Service?	37
To what Extent is the Retailer needed to Customize Service and Exercise Judgment?	38
Myths about Services	38
Myth 1: Service is a necessary evil for manufacturing firms	39
Myth 2: The service sector is labor-intensive and less productive	39
Myth 3: Service firms earn less revenue when compared to the other two sectors	40
Myth 4: Growth in the service economy is linked to the growth of the public sector services	40
Myth 5: Marketing a service is not different from marketing a product.	41
Myth 6: Growth in the service sector eliminates jobs from the manufacturing sector.	41
Summary	42
Questions	129

Chapter - 2

Retail Service Mix

Categories of Service Mix	47
The Retail Service Mix	48
Product in Retailing	49
Product and Merchandise	50
Retail Product Level	51
Identifying and satisfying customer needs	54
Pricing in Retailing	54
Approaches for Setting Prices	56
Which Method is Best?	57
Price adjustments	60

Using Price to Stimulate Retail Price	63
Key Characteristics of Pricing in Retailing	65
Pricing Objectives	67
Incorporating Perceived Value into Service Pricing	69
Value Strategies in Pricing of Services	70
Promotion and Communication of Retailing	73
Retail Promotion Mix	73
Methods of Communicating with Customers	74
Paid Impersonal Communications	74
Paid Personal Communication	76
Unpaid Impersonal Communications	76
Unpaid Personal Communication	77
Strength and Weakness of Communication Method	77
Control	77
Flexibility	78
Credibility	78
Cost	79
Planning the Retail Communication	79
Process	79
Setting Objectives	79
Communication Objectives	79
Setting the Communication Budget	81
Importance of Communication and its Types	81
Internal Communication	82
External Communication	83
Elements of the Promotion Mix	85
Personal Selling	85
Advertising	87
Sales Promotion	89
Publicity and Public Relations (PR)	90
Direct Marketing	90
How to design a service promotion?	91
Strategies for Effective Promotion	91
Place in Retailing	93
Specifying Tasks to be performed	94

Store Location	95
Shopping Centers	96
Strip Shopping Centers	97
Shopping Malls	97
Regional Centers	98
Superregional Centers	98
Lifestyle Centers	98
Fashion/ Specialty Centers	99
Outlet Centers	99
Theme/Festival Centers	100
Merchandise Kiosks	100
Location and retail strategy	101
Department Stores	101
Specialty Stores	102
Category Specialist	103
Grocery Stores	103
People in Retailing	105
Classification of Retail Personnel	105
Problems faced by Retail Personnel	107
Types of Conflict in Service Organizations	109
Individual-Role Conflict	109
Customer- Employee Conflict	109
Inter-Employee Conflict	110
Client-Organization Conflict	110
Inter-Client Conflict	111
People Strategies	111
Attracting the Best Talent	112
Motivating	113
Training	114
Retaining	115
Process in Retailing	116
Characteristics of Service Process Design and Implementation	117
Planning a Service Process	118
Factors Influencing Process Efficiency	121
Planning	121

Service Personnel	121
Technology	122
Location and Decor	122
Physical Evidence	122
Elements of Physical Evidence	123
Significance of Physical Evidence	127
Summary	128
Questions	129

Chapter - 3

Customer Expectation and Perception from Retailers

Consumer Needs and Desires	133
Customer Expectations	134
Do customers have higher customer service expectations now as compared to twenty years ago?	136
Types of Customer Expectation	138
Zone of Tolerance	141
Factors that Influence Customer Expectations of Service	141
Factors that Influence Customers' Expectations of Desired Service	142
Factors that Influence Customer Expectations of Adequate Service	143
Factors that Influence both Desired and Predicted Service Expectations	145
Criteria to Evaluate a Service based on Customer Service Expectation	146
Managing Customer Service Expectations	148
Consumer Behavior	151
What is Consumer Behavior?	151
Types of Buying Decisions	153
Extended Problem Solving	153
Limited Problem Solving	154
Habitual Decision Making	155

Difference between Characteristics of Goods and Services	156
Search Qualities	157
Experience Qualities	158
Credence Qualities	158
Consumer Decision-Making Process	160
Need Perception	161
Types of Needs	162
Conflicting Needs	164
Search for Information and Perceived Risk	164
Amount of Information Searched	165
Search for Information	166
Evaluation of Alternatives	169
Purchase Behavior	172
Post Purchase Evaluation	173
Factors Influencing Consumer Behavior	174
Implications for Retailer	176
Customer's Perceptions	177
Factors that Influence Customer Perceptions	178
Types of Service Encounter	179
Factors Leading to Satisfaction or Dissatisfaction in Service Encounters	180
Strategies for Influencing Customer Perceptions	187
Enhance Customer Satisfaction through Service Encounters	188
Reflect Evidence of Service	188
Communicate and Create a Realistic Image	188
Enhance Customer Perceptions of Quality and Value through Pricing	189
Summary	190
Questions	191

Chapter - 4

Service Quality

Service Quality	195
What is Service Quality?	195

Definition of Quality and its Significance	197
Customer Evaluation of Service Quality	199
Role of Expectations	199
Perceived Quality	201
Store Employees	202
Store Design and Visual Merchandising	203
Situations that Stimulate Satisfactory and Unsatisfactory Experience	203
Determining Customer Service Levels	205
Retailer's Characteristics	206
Competition	207
Types of Merchandise	208
Price Image	208
Target Market Income	209
Developing Service Quality	209
Service Quality Standards	211
Managing Service Quality	212
Implications for Service Providers	213
Gap Model for Improving Service Quality	215
Knowledge Gap	216
Comprehensive Studies	217
Gauging Satisfaction with Individual Transactions	217
Customer Panels and Interviews	218
Interacting with Customers	218
Customer's Complaints	219
Feedback from Store Employees	220
Using Customer Research	220
Standard Gap	221
Commitment to Service Quality	222
Exploring Solutions to Service Problems	222
Innovative Approaches	222
Using Technology	223
To Deliver Consistent High Quality Service	224
Delivery Gap	225
Information and Training	225

Reducing Conflict	227
Empowering Store Employees	227
Providing Incentives	228
Communication Gap	229
Improving Communication between Departments	230
Managing Customer Expectations	230
Handling Customer Complaints	232
Prescriptions for Closing Service Gaps	233
Gap 1 Prescription: Learn what customers expect	233
Gap 2 Prescription: Establish the Right Service Quality standards	233
Gap 3 Prescription: Ensure that service performance meets standards	234
Gap 4 Prescription: Ensure that communication promises are realistic	235
Measuring Service Quality	236
Measuring Service Quality: SERVQUAL	239
The Tangibles Dimension	240
Tangibles Expectations	241
Tangibles Perceptions	241
The Reliability Dimension	242
Reliability Expectations	242
Reliability Perceptions	243
The Responsiveness Dimension	243
Responsiveness Expectations	244
Responsiveness Perceptions	244
The Assurance Dimension	244
Assurance Expectations	245
Assurance Perceptions	245
The Empathy Dimension	245
Empathy Expectations	246
Empathy Perceptions	246
Summary	247
Questions	248

Chapter - 5

Customer Complaints and Customer Service

Customer Complaints and Customer Service	251
Customer Complaining Behavior	251
Types of Complaints	253
Why Do Customers Complain?	254
Why Don't Customers Complain?	255
Complaining Outcomes	256
Customer Expectation about their Complaints	258
Procedure for Handling Customer Complaints	259
Listening to the Customer	259
Providing a Fair Solution	260
Finding a Fair Solution: Resolving Problem Quickly	263
Satisfying Customer Complaints	264
The CREST Method of Resolving Service Failure	265
Complaint Handling	266
Summary	269
Questions	270

Chapter - 6

Managing the Customer Service Function

Customer Service Definition	273
Customer Service	273
Merchandise Management	275
Building and Fixture Management	275
Promotion Management	276
Price Management	276
Credit Management	277
Various Customer Services that a Retailer can offer	277
Pre-transaction Services	277
Transaction Services	279
Post-transaction Services	286
Improving Customer Service	290
Technology to Improve Customer Service	292

The Customer Service Management Cycle	292
Stage 1: Understand the Customers	292
Selecting the target, defining the service and the users of the service	293
Determining the Service Characteristics	294
Developing Customer Profile	295
Understanding Customer's Perception of the Service Provider	295
Stage 2: Set Customer Service Standards	296
Standards in Procedural Dimension of Customer Service ..	296
Standards in Personal Dimension of Customer Service	297
Setting the Standards in Stone	297
Stage 3: Encourage Team Work and Customer-orientation among Employees	298
Stage 4: Establish Control System	299
Stage 5: Prevent Problems Rather than Fixing them	300
Enhancing Customer Service through Improved Service Delivery Process	301
Factors Influencing Service Delivery	301
Summary	302
Questions	303

Cases

Case 1: Positioning Afternoon Bazaar in summers to attract Housewives at Big Bazaar, Haldia	307
Case 2: Pantaloons' Fresh Fashion: Customer Service	315
 Bibliography	321-322
Key Terms Locator	323-328